Marc Summers is the president of the Association of Independent Mortgage Experts (AIME). He is also president of Advantage Mortgage Company of Michigan, a mortgage broker located in Clarkston, Michigan, that has been a broker for 24 years and a staple in its community. Marc entered the broker world in 2001 with Advantage Mortgage as a Loan Officer and worked in various roles in the industry before he returned to Advantage Mortgage and took the reigns as President in 2015.

Marc's hope for AIME is that it gives every independent mortgage broker across the country the chance to finally have a real voice in the industry. He firmly believes that brokers are vital to the mortgage business and that this new association will finally unite independent brokers and mortgage professionals to be stronger than ever as a community, while still maintaining their independence. Marc is focused on cultivating relationships with and between brokers across the nation and providing them with the educational tools, resources and support of a dedicated community that will help gain more market share.

Marc and his wife Amanda have three children. In his spare time, he is the Head Coach of the Boys Varsity Basketball team at a local high school.
